

Introductory 3-Month Offer

Comgate provides new clients with preferential transaction fees during the first months of using the payment gateway or payment terminal.

The introductory rates apply to consumer debit and credit Visa and Mastercard cards issued in the EU, including payments made via Apple Pay and Google Pay. These cards typically account for 95% of card payments.

The introductory offer applies up to a total transaction volume of CZK 1,000,000 per client.
